Job Well Done!

Leslie Richards, Career Development Specialist

Visions Employment would like to applaud client Andrew Hynes for receiving the Cindy Watts Memorial Award at the 2016 Provincial Supported Employment Newfoundland and Labrador (SENL) Conference in May.

The Cindy Watts Memorial Award was created in memory of Employment Counsellor Cindy Watts of Ability Employment Corporation, Clarenville, who passed away in 2000. The Award honours Cindy's exemplary work with the Supported Employment Program and her dedication and commitment to her clients. Cindy had a true belief of what equality, inclusion, and acceptance meant. Employment Corporations nominate clients who exemplify Cindy's positive attitude, work ethic and participation in the community. Andrew's positivity, enthusiasm, and commitment to his job make him an excellent recipient of this Award.

With Richard Payton

Richard was hired for the seasonal Groundskeeper position from June to September 2016 with Admiralty House and Communications Museum in Mount Pearl for 30 hours per week.

Richard has a Job Coach, Gina, who helps him “with everything”. Richard said he “couldn’t ask for a better one” as they work so well together. Richard explained that when they run into a problem Gina will always help him come up with a solution. Richard’s duties include cleaning up the grounds, mulching, weeding, mowing, and cleaning the windows.

Richard said “it gives him something to do”. Working gives him experience and the opportunity to learn new things and to meet new people.

Admiralty House recently had great things to say about Richard and Gina on its Facebook Page:

“The grounds don't take care of themselves and we need someone like Richard who takes pride in his work to keep them in tip-top shape. Richard's favourite thing to do at work is mowing or whipper snipping. Special thanks to the ladies at Visions who helped us find this excellent employee!”

We would like to thank all of our students who came and conquered this summer! We'd also like to throw a huge bouquet to our employer partners and Job Coaches for making this summer such a success.
